“Now is the Time” - We hear that repeated many, many times. We are soon to be in the time of Advent - what is Advent but the time to prepare and remember God’s great Gift to us. We look backward as we consider God’s plan “at the right time, He sent forth His Son, born of a woman, born under the law to redeem those under the law, that we might receive the full rights of sons,” (Gal 4:4) and forward, as the time is now, to joyfully prepare our hearts and minds to celebrate the birth of our Lord and Savior at this time, because Jesus won for us salvation through His death and resurrection (Matt1:21). Now is the time to share, that through faith in Jesus as our personal Savior, we have the promise that we are now God’s children, and we are able to share that message of salvation through our prayers and service to our Lord through the LWML. Whether it’s sewing quilts, making braille books, teaching VBS, hosting a rally or retreat, serving as an officer or committee member in your church or LWML, the Lord is using each of us to further His kingdom as we work together to share God’s love and to glorify His name. Just as sometimes we may feel that our Advent preparations become monotonous and exhausting, but upon completion we are staggered by the beauty and meaning of our arrangements, so too with our prayers and mites for our grant recipients, as well as, all the programs available in LWML, we may become tired, discouraged, and even frustrated by the lack of activity or resolution. But when we step back and look at the big picture, we can see how those seemingly unimportant events and actions through the power of the Holy Spirit, have changed people’s hearts and lives to see Jesus with the eyes of faith – that’s a BEAUTIFUL picture! Advent is the time to look backward to see all the wonderful things God has done for us and through us; Advent is also the time, as our hearts celebrate the Christ Child’s coming, to enthusiastically step forward in faith and love using our gifts and talents to share Jesus’ love with the world.

Blessed Advent,

Sylvia

Luke 10:2 and He said to them, “The harvest is plentiful but the laborers are few. Therefore pray earnestly to the Lord of the harvest to send laborers into His harvest.”

Be Still, and Know that He is God

Pr. Jonathan Schultz

If you have been paying any attention to the news of late, you might just find yourself concerned at the events of the world.

The Middle East is once again embroiled in a bloody war. ISIS has driven thousands of Christians out of their homeland, and begun a reign of terror that has the world frightened at their brutality.

Ebola, that deadly disease once confined to the far-off reaches of another continent, has found its way to our shores. As of this writing, one has died, two more have been infected, and over a hundred more people are under observation. Will our healthcare system be able to prevent an outbreak? Will we find a way to prevent this disease from spreading?

The news rages on. As we watch the nightly news, we hear of race riots in St. Louis; religious people facing threats to their liberties across the country; and the breakdown of the traditional understanding of marriage and family. There certainly is much to keep the talking heads of the 24 hour news cycle fomenting.

Add to that our own personal scares. Many people struggle with financial difficulties. Our families are often fractured as a result of sin. We watch, helplessly, as people we know and love struggle with sicknesses, cancer, pain, and death.

Now, with the holidays fast approaching, our lives are about to get even busier than they already are. Our time is consumed with planning and parties, food preparations and shopping.

It's pretty easy to paint a depressing picture of our world and our lives. As we look around at all that is going on around us, at the chaos that seems to reign around the globe, we finally may just come to the realization that we have no control over anything. That is a desperate place in which to find oneself.

But into the chaos of this world, our Lord speaks to us a calming Word: "Be still, and know that I am God." (Psalm 46:10) What, what??? Be still?

The author of Psalm 46 knew of the chaos of this world: the earth giving way, mountains falling into the heart of the sea, waters roaring and foaming; mountains trembling; nations raging and kingdoms tottering. Sounds awfully familiar, doesn't it? Yet through it all, God was in the midst of the chaos, and He could not be moved.

Luther paraphrases Psalm 46 in "A Mighty Fortress Is Our God," the battle hymn of the Reformation.

"And take they our life,
Goods, fame, child, and wife,
Though these all be gone,
Our vict'ry has been won;
The Kingdom ours remaineth."
(LSB 656)

This world is stained by sin; death is at our doorstep. But through Jesus' death and resurrection, God has won the ultimate victory over sin, death and the devil! He fought the battle for us and won! And with His victory, we need not fear anything the world can throw at us.

When the troubles of this world seem to overwhelm and there seems no place to turn, turn to Jesus. Find solace in His Word. Partake of His mercy in the Lord's Supper. Share a word of His peace with a friend who needs it. Or just be still, and know that He has conquered it all. Be still, and know that He is God.

Mission Grant Update – Biblical Orthodox Lutheran Mission

As we ponder and prepare for Advent, we can't help but think of all the turmoil in the land of Jesus' birth. The answer is still the same, the world needs Jesus! Biblical Orthodox Lutheran Mission (BOLM), one of our Mission Grant recipients for the 2014-16 biennium, seeks to share Christ's love with Arabic-speaking people, Muslims and others nationally and internationally. BOLM also disciples new believers, educates them and as the Lord wills, commissions them as missionaries. Most of BOLM's work is achieved via the Internet Paltalk "Chat" Room which provides lectures and question and answer sessions. Rev. Dr. George Naeem is able to answer questions, explaining precisely what Islam really teaches and comparing it to what the Bible states. Rev. Naeem also translates pastors' lectures into Arabic. It costs $1300 per month to operate the "chat room" which is open to all countries. A partial payment of the $6,000 granted to this outreach will offset some of the "chat room" expense.

As President Kay says, "The time is NOW!" Let us pray for the mission outreach of BOLM and for our persecuted Christian brothers and sisters in the Middle East and Africa as we feed our Mite boxes. If you wish to invite Pastor Naeem to your church, he may be contacted at 303-859-5693 or E-mail: gnaeem@comcast.net.

Reaching Our Teens with the Word

Judy Gordan
Christian Resources Editor

At our recent Rocky Mountain District convention this past June in Denver, we were blessed to have fourteen teens in attendance. Those who were "official" teen representatives for a Zone have been sharing their impressions and experiences at their Zone's Fall Rally. But what happens to our teen girls when the excitement of the experience passes away and the time in Denver becomes "old news"? Too often, they are forgotten by us, (the "older") members of LWML; and in turn, they become busy with their normal teen lives and the Convention and LWML become a pleasant, hazy memory of the past.

If you have spent time browsing through the current LWML catalog, you will have discovered only one page dedicated to our teen girls. You will find one example of a do-it-yourself journal; one example of "Prayers for Teens"; and two possible selections for teen Bible studies/devotions. Obviously, there is a great need for more available materials for our young women. Our teens are waiting for Bible studies and devotions that would appeal to them as young Christian women; deepen their relationship with their Lord; and increase their understanding of the role they play as Christians.

If we wish to keep our young women excited about and interested in what LWML is doing and what it can offer women in the Lutheran Church, Missouri Synod, then we need to become pro-active in providing them with materials that can meet their needs! Rocky Mountain District, as well as national LWML, is looking for anyone interested in writing devotions, sketches, or Bible studies for our teen girls. The potential "harvest" is plentiful ladies, but we need willing writers. The time is "NOW", so please contact your Rocky Mountain District Christian Resources Editor at: christianresed@lwmlrmd.org for a Writer's Guideline and any questions that you might have.

Thankful Hearts in Songs and Prayers

Darlene Markle, VP Servant Resources

This Advent season you might be singing, “Savior of the Nations, Come.” The words in those verses prepare us for the “arrival” of the newborn king. Remember Mary’s thankful heart? Luke 1:46 says, “my soul glorifies the Lord and my spirit rejoices in God my Savior.”

The Lord loves when we praise Him. The Bible is filled with praises. Our own logo is Psalm 100:2. We just use the first line which says, “Worship the Lord with gladness” but there’s more! The following line says, “come before him with joyful songs.” Look at verse 4! “Enter his gates with thanksgiving and His courts with praise; give thanks to Him and praise His name.”

If you were to list all the things you were thankful for, how long would your list be? How many times a day or week do you personally take the time to praise Him?

The Psalms are prayers and praises! Martin Luther called the Psalms “a little Bible”. Give God a gift. Give God your time, quiet time, thanking and praising Him. God is the giver of all good gifts. God is worthy to be praised and YOU are His greatest joy! Sing to Him a new song. Sing and Praise His Holy name.

It’s wonderful to thank people for what their kindness has meant to you but it’s even more wonderful to thank God for that kindness extended. 1 Thessalonians 5:18 says, “Give thanks in all circumstances, for this is God’s will for you in Christ Jesus.”

Be sure to share your faith stories too. Just be yourself and tell others what He has done in your life!

Check out the new song, “Praise, Love, Serve” by Jean Hansen Kammerer. The song is based on the LWML pledge and the tune is familiar, “O Little Town of Bethlehem” It can be found at www.lwml.org/other/who-we-are-more/pledge-songs.php. This is a free download so enjoy it and share it with others!

Prayer books are heartfelt prayers written by women for women. Check out Daily Mustard Seed Devotions on our website and scroll down to prayer books. These soft-cover books can even fit in your purse.

LWML Salt Lake City Host Committee Expense Fund

2017 LWML Convention Salt Lake City is fast approaching! What an awesome privilege the Rocky Mountain District has to serve on the Host Committee along with Utah-Idaho, Montana, and Wyoming Districts and to be God's shining lights to the people in the Salt Lake City community.

As one of the four districts hosting this convention, we have been asked to raise funds for the Host Committee expenses: $5,000 per district which breaks down to $85 per society. No doubt you are asking, "What are these expenses and what are we supporting?" The answers are:

- * Booth space at the Des Moines Convention in 2015 - $475. Volunteers from the four districts will be working in this booth to promote the SLC Convention in 2017.
- * T-shirts that will be sold prior and during convention. The profit from these sales will help pay for other Host Committee expenses.
- * Special dress (shirts, hats, ribbons, buttons) which distinguishes Host Committee workers.
- * Dinner for 100+ people (Board of Directors (BOD), Convention Planning Committee (CPC), Executive Committee (EC), and Host Committee (HC) members in January/February of convention year (2015).

- * Publicity expenses for exhibit space at synodical conventions or any other gathering where the SLC Convention is promoted.
- * Favors, gifts, and other public relations materials given out at LWML BOD, CPC, EC meetings.

Please lead the pre-convention fundraising activities in your congregation/society. Let your fellow members know that you and hundreds of workers from the Utah-Idaho, Wyoming, Montana, and Rocky Mountain Districts will have the privilege of serving on the SLC Host Committee and that they covet their prayers, appreciate, and are counting on, your financial support. The volunteer application and the Spiritual Gifts and Talent forms are available from Beth Weber at publicrelations@lwmlrmd.org. The deadline for applying is November 10th. There will be one meeting on site and the others will be held via an internet service.

Eighty-five dollars may not be a problem to some congregations or societies, but to others that amount may prove to be a hardship, so $85 is the minimum donation, more is appreciated

Host Committee Expense Fund Update

We have collected $1,073 so far. Thank you! Keep those donations to the 2017 SLC Host Committee Expense Fund coming, ladies! We have $3,927 to go. Deadline in November 2015

- * Plan now for a Spring Rummage/Garage Sale with your proceeds going to the 2017 Salt Lake City Host Committee Expense Fund.

Heart 2 Heart Sister Program

Applications for a District Representative for the H2H Sister Program has been extended to January 15, 2015. Your transportation for the convention, registration, lodging, and meals would be paid by the district.

What does this mean?

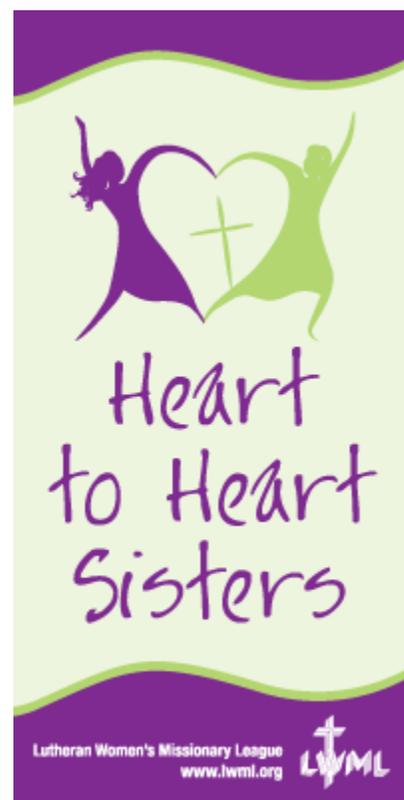

This is an opportunity to train at the National LWML Convention in Des Moines, IA as the representative from the Rocky Mountain District to promote LWML and mission opportunities (this could mean mission grant proposals) to include all ethnicities in our district.

If you think about what the mission of the Young Women Committee is – to promote LWML, the resources available and mission opportunities in which young women can be involved – this is the same focus for the H2H Sister Program but the emphasis is on ethnicities.

We need one person willing to attend the training at convention, and then be willing to share all the LWML possibilities (leadership resources, Bible studies and devotional resources, retreats and other mission information) with the Lutheran women of all ethnic backgrounds in our district. These Lutheran women of diverse cultural background could “plug-in” to LWML as an even better and more productive way to obtain resources that would be available to enable them to use their gifts in ministry to the people of the world as they continue their service in the church and the mission work they are already doing.

Finally, the hope would be to have a Heart to Heart Sister Program at our district convention just as we have for the young women and the teens.

Interested? Contact Sylvia Bean: president@lwmlrmd.org

Guidelines for Selecting an LWML Young Woman Representative (YWR)

- Any mature young woman, preferably 22-35 years of age, who is a member of the LCMS and has not previously attended a national convention as a Young Woman Representative may become a YWR.
- A YWR candidate has a deep love and devotion for her Lord Jesus Christ and is willing to participate in the full scope of the convention.
- A YWR candidate will fill out the application completely and honestly and return it to the district by the date it is due.
- A YWR candidate is willing to be away from home/work for the entire convention and the travel time involved.

The YWR should:

- have a strong relationship with her Lord. Her faith will encourage her as she participates in the convention and carries out her YWR duties and responsibilities;
- have some knowledge of the LWML. She will gain much from her national convention experience if she understands the basics of the organization. Each district should make an effort to provide education and information for the YWR prior to the convention;
- know what is expected of her on the district level after the national convention, whether that is speaking engagements, attendance at district events or YWR committee work;
- have experience or potential in at least two of the following areas: speaking, leading, recruiting or encouraging. Since she will be expected to impact others with her convention experience, skills in these areas will be helpful; and
- have a desire to make a difference, be willing to assume the responsibilities given her by the district, and serve in a sincere and dedicated manner. Enthusiasm to learn and be involved is a must!

What is expected of a Young Woman Representative?

- A YWR will attend all sessions of the convention, sitting with her district delegation, though she will not be eligible to vote.
- A YWR will be asked to report on her convention experience either orally or in written form to the district, zone or society that nominated her.
- A YWR will commit to being involved in her local LWML as well as encourage other young women to be active in the LWML.

These guidelines are suggestions to empower your YWR program to have the greatest effect on the young women of your district. May the Lord lead and guide you in your selection process!

YWR application is December 31, 2014

Completed Banner Specifications:

- Finished banner size is to be 3'X 5' and will be carried lengthwise. If you add fringe, it may be longer;*
- Use of the convention logo is NOT permitted, but the design must be based on the convention theme BOUNTIFUL---SOW--NOURISH--REAP;*
- The banner may be any color;*
- The name, ROCKY MOUNTAIN DISTRICT, must be on the front of the banner. The name may be abbreviated, and any size letters may be used. To help identify our district's banner when rolled up, a small identifying tag naming our district will be placed on the lower left hand corner of the back side of the banner;*
- The banner should be attached to a 1" dowel stick with an eye screw on each end, laying the cord flat along the rod and knotting it on the outside of each screw eye. The cord (heavy enough to support the weight of the banner) will stretch when the banner is hung. A pole and stand for the banner will be provided at the convention site by the host committee.*
